

Accessibility Statement for the Dublin Cultural Institute website

Dublin Cultural Institute is committed to ensuring digital accessibility for all users, including people with disabilities. We strive to continuously improve the user experience and apply relevant accessibility standards to create an inclusive and user-friendly website for everyone.

Measures to Support Accessibility

To support digital accessibility, Dublin Cultural Institute:

- Integrates accessibility into our web development and design practices
- Conducts ongoing accessibility testing and evaluations
- Provides training and guidance to developers on accessibility best practices
- Actively monitors feedback and updates content or features as needed

Conformance Status

The Dublin Cultural Institute website aims to conform to the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG) 2.1 Level AA. These guidelines define how to make web content more accessible to people with a wide range of disabilities, including visual, auditory, cognitive, and motor impairments.

Feedback and Contact Information

We welcome your feedback on the accessibility of the Dublin Cultural Institute website. If you encounter any accessibility barriers or have suggestions for improvement, please contact us:

Email: info@dublinci.com

Phone: +1 (800) 674-5081

Website Contact Form: <https://www.dublinci.com/contact-us>

Technical Specifications

Dublin Cultural Institute is designed to be compatible with:

- Modern browsers such as Chrome, Safari, Firefox, and Edge
- Assistive technologies, including screen readers and keyboard-only navigation tools
- Mobile and desktop devices

Limitations and Alternatives

Although we make every effort to ensure accessibility across our website, some areas may not yet be fully accessible. We are actively working to improve these areas. If you need information in an alternative format or experience any issues, please reach out using the contact information above.

Date

This accessibility statement was last updated on May 20, 2025.